01 - WELCOME

This is where your story begins.

Not just photographs,
but moments you'll feel again.

I don't chase poses.
I observe. I anticipate. I stay present.

The quiet breath before the ceremony.
A glance that lasts half a second.
Laughter that arrives unexpectedly.

Every wedding is different.
That's why my approach is never standard.

I don't document weddings to show how they looked.
I photograph them so you remember how they felt.

Again.

And again...

02 - MEET STEFANO

I'm Stefano Ferrier, a wedding photographer working across Ireland, Italy, and Europe.

For over a decade, I've photographed weddings with a documentary approach... focused on real moments, genuine emotions, and natural light.

My role is simple: to let you live your day fully, while I quietly tell its story.

*No forced smiles.
No interruptions.
No performances.*

Just honest photography, created with care and intention.

03 - THE PROCESS

1 – Get in Touch

Send me your wedding date, venue, and a few details about your plans. I'll reply within 24 hours with availability and next steps.

2 – Let's Connect

If my work resonates with you, we'll arrange a relaxed video call. We'll talk about your day, your priorities, and make sure we're the right fit.

3 – Secure Your Date

Your date is confirmed with a signed agreement and a 20% deposit. From this point on, I'm fully available to support you.

4 – Planning & Timeline

Before the wedding, I'll guide you through a short questionnaire. Together, we'll create a photography timeline that keeps the day calm, natural, and well-paced.

5 – Wedding Day

You enjoy every moment. I'll be present but unobtrusive, capturing real emotions, meaningful details, and everything in between.

6 – After the Wedding

You'll receive a preview shortly after the day. Your full gallery will be delivered within 2–4 months, ready to download, share, and print. If an album is included, I'll personally guide you through the design.

04 – WHAT TO EXPECT ON YOUR WEDDING DAY

Everything flows smoothly, without pressure.

I plan ahead so you don't have to think about photography at all.

I arrive early, prepared and focused.

During preparations, I move gently through the room, documenting real moments as they happen.

During the ceremony, I work discreetly and respectfully.

Vows, emotions, reactions... captured instinctively, never intrusively.

Family and group photos are calm, efficient, and well-organised.

No chaos. No wasted time.

Couple portraits are relaxed and natural.

I'll guide you just enough to let your connection take over.

As the celebration unfolds, I stay alert and adaptable.

Weddings evolve... and I respond instinctively to every meaningful moment.

My goal is simple:

so you can forget about the photos and fully live your wedding day.

Stefano is a fantastic wedding photographer. His pictures are great quality and he captured every moment we asked for and even ones we didn't know we wanted.

He is a great communicator and always quick to respond to queries, both before and after the event.

I highly recommend Stefano Ferrier as a wedding photographer.
